Anti Aircraft Artillery Barracks in Bohnice (051/150) (see Encl. 1, a)

1. The barracks are located in the eastern half of the former insane asylum which now occupies only the western half of its former area. Only the headquarters building and part of a training ground behind it can be observed from outside because the view of the rest of the buildings is obscured by a thick hedge. Opposite the barracks is a military area, the eastern side of which is 500 meters long and northern side 350 meters long. Within the area are training ground and parking areas for guns and trucks. All military personnel observed within the area were AA artillery members.
2. On 22 October 1953 about 200 enlisted men and a group of junior officers conducted drill without arms at the training ground (Pt. 2). Fifteen groups, each 30 men strong, conducted drill under the supervision of NCOs and junior officers at the training ground (Pt. 3). About 150 AA guns and numerous bowl-type apparatuses mounted on 2-axle trucks resembling sound detectors were parked in the area (Pt. 5), and about 150 trucks were parked at the parking lot (Pt. 4).
3. On 14 November 1953 there were about 150 - 180 AA guns and 300 trucks parked in the same areas.
